MAIL TRADING INSTRUCTIONS

The hobby of collecting playing cards can be interesting, instructive, entertaining, educational, and great fun. It is a matter entirely up to the individual collector. But, how does one acquire cards? One of the best ways to accumulate new cards, and fill in the gaps in one's collection, is to trade by mail. However, in so doing, there are two very important rules to keep in mind at all times which encompass fair trading. These are:

- A -- THE GOLDEN RULE -- Do unto others as you would have them do unto you, or in plain language, SEND UNTO OTHERS AS YOU WOULD HAVE THEM SEND UNTO YOU!
- B -- THE RULE OF GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP -- Fair trading at all times! In ALL trades, return cards of THE SAME VALUE; cards which are included in mutually agreed upon CLASSIFICATIONS and CATEGORIES; and cards in the SAME GOOD CONDITION.

*** **

Certain regulations are herein set forth by CPCC on FAIR TRADING must be observed at all times by all trading members. (See Article II, Section 7)

1. SEND CLEAN, UNDAMAGED CARDS - meaning cards in good condition such as one would be proud to place in his or her own collection.
2. USE YOUR DIRECTORY - Check the CPCC Directory for preference of the member to whom you are sending to make certain that the cards being sent will interest him or her.
3. ADDRESS ACCURATELY - Be certain that the address is clear and correct, and that the envelope is in good condition. This will avoid loss in the mail.
4. SEND RETURNS PROMPTLY - Make all returns within two weeks, if possible. When you are unable to respond for several weeks we advise, as a courtesy, that you contact the sender, acknowledging that you received the trade.
5. KEEP RECORDS - In order to expedite mail trading, it is wise to keep a record of: (a) date received; (b) from whom; (c) number of cards; (d) type of cards; (e) date of return trade. By keeping such a record, it is very simple to find what you owe and to whom, and what is due you.
6. SEND GIFT PACKETS TO NEW COLLECTORS - DO NOT expect a new collector to be able to return a trade! Rather, send a new collector a GIFT PACKET of 25 cards to help and encourage the building of his or her collection. DON'T DISCOURAGE A NEW COLLECTOR!
