

Lot 29	Congress Lacquer Hummingbirds Deck	1891	USA
52+J EX No Box	Exquisite lacquer-back hummingbird design, bright gold edges, some minor edge wear. Several cards have small stains, the ace of spades has a nicked edge and joker has a faint crease. No outer box.
U.S. Printing Co.		Hochman US6b	Minimum 240
Lot 30	Queen Victoria Jubilee Deck	1897	England
52 NM No Box	Beautiful Goodall deck honoring Queen Victoria. Non-standard courts feature royalty going back to 1216 with Henry III. Deck is near mint with sparkling gold edges; it has a slight uniform vertical bend.
Goodall & Son		Fournier #338	Minimum 100
Lot 31	Caterson & Brotz Bon Ton Deck	1880	USA
52 VG/EX OB3 parts	Bon Ton #66 is a hard to find brand for this early maker. Box has beautiful graphics but is incomplete with damage and missing top flap. Gold edges have light soil and wear; a few cards have light soil on faces. No Joker.
Caterson & Brotz		Hochman L32	Minimum 90
Lot 32	Ramblers #22 Deck	1890	USA
52+J+Blk EX/NM OB1-	Maybe the earliest edition of Ramblers with this Ace; it has the great joker from 1885. It is in great condition with light stains on the joker, blank and 5C, 6C.
National Playing Card Co.		Hochman NU7a	Minimum 90
Lot 33	Helmet #119 Deck	1908	USA
52+J+ec Mint OB2+	Helmet #119 was not a popular brand. Very tough to find in this condition. The extra card advertises Bicycle brand decks. Attractive box has light stains and a scrape.
USPC		Hochman US33	Minimum 130
Lot 34	Mint Sealed Hawaiian Souvenir Deck	1901	USA
52+J Mint Sealed OB1	This mint sealed deck was made by USPC for Wall, Nichols Co. in Honolulu. Each card has a different photo of Hawaii and its culture. Wrapper is split on one end and one side. A beauty with sparkling gold edges.
USPC		Hochman S29	Minimum 60
Lot 35	American PC Kazoo #4 Deck	1896	USA
52+J Mint OB1	This nice deck, made from rougher stock, was never used but the Ace of Spades and the back of the cute Joker are slightly darker from being on the ends. Otherwise this deck is absolutely mint in a great tuckcase.
American PCC		Hochman L59	Minimum 120
