

Lot 15	4 Continents Deck	1885 Germany
52 EX/NM Period Box	This stunning deck is the 2nd of 3 editions, probably the most beautiful. The aces feature four continents; courts represent their dress. Each pip card has a different background design. See back cover. Housed in a worn whist tuck case of the period.
Dondorf		Minimum 325
Lot 16	Monogram Squeezers #335 Deck	c1910 USA
52+J +Wrapper NM OB2-	Issued for a Club, "UC", maybe Union Club. Unused but the great joker has light bending across bottom and left side edges. It's complete wrapper is one of the nicest you will ever see, see front cover. Box has tear on the side shown but still solid and attractive.
NYCC	Hochman NY49a	Minimum 100
Lot 17	Go Fish Deck	2005 USA
52+2J As Issued OB1	This deck was designed by art student Tiara Lynn Banovez for the club's deck design contest held at the 2005 convention. The deck and publication rights were auctioned and won by Robert van Gool. He had a limited number printed by Cartamundi.
Cartamundi		Minimum 20
Lot 18	5 Worshipful Singles 1882/90s	c1890 England
Fair - VG	Five Worshipful Co. singles: 1882, 1886, 1897 as shown, also 1892 and another 1897 with cream background but same design. The faces are soiled or stained; two have dates written on the faces in pencil.
Worshipful Co.		Minimum 40
Lot 19	Sportsman's # 202 Deck	c1915 USA
52+J Mint OB2	Tough to find old USPC decks in mint condition with wrapper. Retriever joker. Wrapper is torn; slip case box has corner and edge wear and early owner label covering much of the card back on reverse.
USPC	Hochman US2b	Minimum 90
Lot 20	Rockwell Intl Space Shuttle Deck	1983 USA
52+2J Mint- OB2	Great piece of NASA history. Deck has special courts, kings and queens in space suits, jacks are rocket scientists and jokers are robots. Box has space shuttle and Rockwell International logo; it has edge wear and some creasing. Backs also show shuttle.
		Minimum 20
Lot 21	Pilgrim Laundry Deck	c1928 USA
52+J+2EC Mint OB1-	This cute deck features a pilgrim woman doing her laundry on the Spade Ace and Joker as well as on the auction card and box. The intact tuckcase has slight edge rubbing. An unusual early narrow advertising deck for all who love the ads!
USPC	Hochman AB6	Minimum 65	